

Nate Mathews

817 Grant St. Bartlett, IL 60103
630.292.3264
studio@natemathews.com
www.natemathews.com

Bio

Nate Mathews is a Chicago based artist, photographer, and educator. He received a M.F.A. from Columbia College Chicago in 2008 and has shown work in numerous group and solo exhibitions across the country. His work attempts to capture the way that the inhabitants of a space change it over time in order to better it from a design that they find oppressive. He is currently a professor of photography at Northeastern Illinois University and Waubensee Community College.